A. FINDING

On 5 August 2015 a student in the Faculty of Engineering and the Built Environment was found GUILTY of misconduct in that during or about September 2014 and at or near the Faculty of Engineering and the Built Environment at the University of the Witwatersrand he, without just excuse, submitted an assignment in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the course ARPL5009 that contained ideas, thoughts and writings of others as if the ideas, thoughts and writings were his own, whereas in fact they were not.

B. PUNISHMENT

The Student Discipline Committee imposed the following punishment:

1. The student is awarded a mark of zero (0) for the assignment submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the course ARPL5009 in September 2014; and
2. The student is excluded from the University for a period of one year from the date of judgment which exclusion is suspended on condition that he is not again found guilty of misconduct involving academic dishonesty while he is a registered student at the University.

C. PUBLICATION

The Student Discipline Committee agreed that the Faculty, offence and sentence be published without particulars of the student concerned.
